for collectors, booksellers

and librarians

"American First Editions," first issued in 1929 to become the daily guide of collectors, booksellers and students of literary history, has now been given most thorough and painstaking revision—a monument to American bibliography.

Nearly 200 authors from Philip Freneau to John Steinbeck are included and every one of the 10,000 titles have in the revision been rechecked, hundreds of new items added, disputed claims studied, missing details supplied. The books of each author are listed in chronological sequence, followed by pamphlet and ephemeral material, biographies and bibliographies. Each pertinent point for identifying first editions which research has developed is recorded.

THE SERIAL REPORTS OF AMERICAN BOOK-PRICES CURRENT

This is the fastest method yet devised of keeping up-to-date between the appearances of the annual volumes of the ABC. The Serial Reports present accurate records of the leading book auctions within 10 to 14 days after date of sale. Every field in the old and rare book world is united in praising this unique service, now in its fourth year:

From a Noted Collector

"After seeing the report on the Newton sale I feel that every collector must have American Book-Prices Current Serially"

From a University Librarian

"The single sales are convenient, not only to our own staff, but to many branches in our college, from faculty to research workers"

From an Auction House

"Will you kindly send us ten copies of the serial report of the Newton Sale. We find these more convenient to use and wish to distribute them to favored clients . . ."

From a Reviewer

"Not the least importance of the ABC serial reports is the fact that they are not discarded with the issuance of the annual volume, but are saved for the increasing usefulness in future years . . ."

From a Bookseller

"These quick reports have saved me the costs of priced catalogs, the individual sales have allowed me to pick and choose items for best trade purposes . . ."

From a Public Library

"We are enclosing $2. for an additional subscription to American Bookfinder since we find that our readers are becoming more aware of this Serial Service and we require our set for the use of the acquisition department"

From a Bibliographer

"The high standard of accuracy maintained in the Serial Reports makes them useful supplements to my own work"

From a Research Worker

"Since my own interest is limited to English literature I usually abstract the sales that are rich in this material . . ."

Free with your subscription to American Bookfinder, or $1. extra with your copy of American Book-Prices Current. Send for your sample copy.

FOREWORD

THIS INDEX, covering the years 1933-1940 inclusive, follows the pattern of its predecessor. The inclusion of prices in the latter work was received so favorably that continuance of this feature is mandatory. It has not been possible to reconcile inconsistencies in some entries to the extent of the editor's hopes, but many new features will compensate for this shortcoming.

The work follows in the main the arrangement of the Annual volumes. The items are arranged alphabetically by author, or, in the case of anonymous books, by the first word of title. Under each author's name, his works are listed alphabetically, the various editions chronologically, with undated items at the end. Complete, or collected works are placed at the end of the alphabetic file of the titles. Most of the titles are given in short form.

Following the title of each work is the year of publication, then, in parentheses, the year of the volume of AMERICAN BOOK-PRICES CURRENT in which the entry is to be found, then the price or prices the book brought. A COMMA separates the various years of sale; a SEMI-COLON separates the various years of publication.

Several important new features appear. The first of these is some statement, however short, which gives the user a clue to the reason for a price out of the ordinary: e.g., "Inscr.", meaning Autograph Presentation Copy; "Special Binding," (or name of binder), denoting that value was out of the ordinary because of the type of binding; other common terms, which are self-explanatory, as "Extra-Illustrated," "—'s Copy," "Boards," "Wraps," "Original Cloth," etc., etc., and last, but very important, "W.A.F.," meaning "With All Faults."

All of the above statements FOLLOW the prices to which they pertain. In addition to these clues to reasons for prices, the more important or difficult items have been arranged according to their original states: books in Parts, Boards, Wrappers, or Cloth, if so first issued, are grouped before the copies which have been rebound. In some instances all are grouped together, but a note follows the prices in such cases. Incunabula is listed whenever possible with the place of printing and name of printer. Large masses of type have been reduced to small blocks by sectionalizing years of sale. The Broad-sides and the Maps have been put into separate sections, Part III, and Part IV, at the end. The arrangement of these, by Years When Sold, is thought to be the best method of recording.

This work is intended as a price list and an Index, not a bibliography. As such, the compiler hopes the user will bring to it, in addition to intelligence and ingenuity, caution. Whenever doubtful, the ANNUAL volumes should be consulted.

EDWARD LAZARE
